Henderson Equity Partners expands its Infrastructure Team

Henderson Equity Partners is delighted to announce the recent appointment of three highly experienced new Principals to its successful infrastructure team. Jasvinder Bal, Michael Jaffe and Chris Tanner join the London based team.

Jas has over six years of experience in concession-based infrastructure investments. He has held responsibilities on a number of projects across a range of sectors including health, education and roads having worked for Land Securities Trillium, Barclays Private Equity and Carillion Private Finance. Jas holds a MSc in Finance from London Business School and a BA from the University of Sheffield.

Michael joins from the UBS securitisation team where he focussed on the corporate and infrastructure sectors. He has fourteen years of experience in the securitisation market and has arranged transactions for a broad range of asset classes, including infrastructure financing transactions in excess of £10 billion. Michael is a Chartered Accountant and has an MA from Cambridge University.

Chris has eight years of experience in concession-based infrastructure projects and has extensive experience in advising bidders on financing and commercial issues across a range of projects. Chris joins from PricewaterhouseCoopers where he focussed on project finance advisory for both public and private sector clients, covering a wide range of infrastructure sectors with a strong focus on the waste sector. Chris is a Chartered Accountant and has a BA from Oxford University.

Paul Woodbury, Co-Head of Henderson Equity Partners' infrastructure team, comments:

"We are delighted to welcome three such highly talented individuals to our team. Their appointments have allowed us to strengthen further our ability to deliver value to our infrastructure investors in both the development and operational phases of our investments."
