HENDERSON GLOBAL INVESTORS TO REOPEN FLAGSHIP FUND

European Focus Manager Sees “New Ideas” in Changing Market Conditions

Chicago, February 7, 2008 – Henderson Global Investors, the $123.6¹ billion investment management company, today announced the February 11 reopening of its flagship European Focus Fund to new investors.

The $1.2 billion Fund closed to new investors in August 2007. Portfolio manager Stephen Peak, seeing attractive stock-picking possibilities driven by a changing market environment, has elected to reopen the Fund so additional investors may benefit from these new investment ideas. The Fund's reopening applies to all platforms and programs.

Before investing, you should carefully consider the Funds' investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. This and other information is in the prospectus, a copy of which may be obtained by visiting the Funds' website at www.hendersonglobalinvestors.com. Please read the prospectus carefully before you invest.

International investing involves certain risks and increased volatility not associated with investing solely in the US. These risks include currency fluctuations, economic or financial instability, lack of timely or reliable financial information or unfavorable political or legal developments. The Fund may invest in securities issued by smaller companies, which typically involves greater risk than investing in larger companies. Also, the Fund may invest in limited geographic areas and/or sectors which may result in greater market volatility.

Henderson Global Investors is the name under which various subsidiaries of Henderson Group plc, a UK limited company, provide investment products and services.
